Reference letter from the company "Control Service Sp. z o.o.", providing inspection services with a range of analytical testing. The company uses a demountable samplers from 2011 and recommend them because of the ease and speed of cleaning. Innovative solutions translates directly into better repeatability and representativeness of test results, which also observed Control Service’s customers.

Sign by:

Beata Kordek
Research and Development Director
Control Service Sp. z o.o.